CONDITION OF KEITH DOULL IMPROVED NOW

Operation for Intra-Eritoneal Hemorrhage Successful

INJURY SERIOUS

Doull Accidentally Kicked in Stomach With Knee

At a late hour last night it was learned that Keith Doull, McGill Intermediate rugby player, who had undergone an operation at the Montreal General Hospital for intra-eritoneal hemorrhage was greatly improved in condition and that the operation was entirely successful. He is lying in a private ward as the result of an injury received in a match with Loyola on Wednesday last. He is not, however, entirely out of danger owing to the seriousness of the injury. Dr. Chandler, his physician, declared.

Keith Doull, who is a sophomore in Commerce, is one of the outstanding players on the Intermediate Team. He holds the right middle wing position and is a good tackler.

The exact circumstances of the accident are uncertain but according to the report of a spectator of the game it seems that Doull was running down the field to get a fumble and in so doing came into contact with some Loyola men. He bumped between them and accidentally received a kick in the stomach with the knee. He was immediately carried off the field and rushed to the hospital for examination. He was in great pain and it was decided to keep him under observation for some time. The pain lessening in no way, it was finally decided to operate and on Sunday night this was done.

It turned out that his injury was internal and was behind the stomach which caused a severe hemorrhage. Dr. Chandler stated last night that he is improved and is resting quietly. His robust constitution and youth are greatly in his favour.

Doull, who comes from Vernon, B.C., is the son of the Right Reverend J. A. Doull, the Bishop of Kootenay, who was formerly Rector of the Church of the Advent at Westmount.

83 Per Cent Of Students Quality For "A" Category

Eighty-three per cent of the students entering McGill University are in good health and fit for all forms of physical exercise, according to a report issued yesterday at the office of Dr. Lamb in Molson Hall.

Of the 331 men students examined up to October 12, 174 or eighty-three per cent, fulfilled the requirements for category "A". Last year's examinations showed a slightly better result. Of a total of 1,100 students examined in 1924, 926, or percentage of eighty-four reached the "A" standard.

The aim of the department of Physical Education, under the direction of Dr. Lamb is to promote as far as possible the physical welfare of the student body. It was stated at the office yesterday. Every student thus coming to the University for the first time is required to pass a physical

SOCIOLOGY I MADE TOUR OF HARBOUR

Boat-race and Refreshments Vary Delightful Program

One course of instruction by Professor Dawson, and three courses of exceptionally good food, were the happy lot of the students of Sociology I yesterday afternoon when they went on an extended tour of the Montreal Harbour.

The class, which is much larger than in previous years, completely filled the Outremont street car at the corner of Milton and Park Avenue, at 2:30 p.m. yesterday. The female students required all the seats though as the car neared its destination an elderly gentleman was seen sandwiched between two young ladies of Sociology I, with a blissful expression on his face.

The ice-breaker, Sir Hugh Allan, which is the official conveyer of the Harbour Commissioners, was waiting at Victoria Pier. The students were given a close-up view of Elevator No. 2, and were then taken to No. 3, where the complete operations of that elevator were observed, and the freight-car dumper seen in operation.

The Sir Hugh Allan then steamed out as far as the Vickers works, and the large dry-dock was visited.

One the way back, the students assembled in the dining room where a delicious variety of food, including cake, biscuits, ice cream, and ginger ale, was served in large quantities.

The journey back was enlivened by an exciting race with the Sir John Young, a tug, which eventually got left behind. As a conclusion to the tour the Sir Hugh Allan crew were cheered, and the McGill yell was given.

Excursions to the Royal Victoria Hospital and to Ottawa, are among the expeditions planned for Sociology I by Professor Dawson.

ONLY ONE INFORMAL DANCE BEFORE XMAS

This information was given out by the President of the Union last night.

MARKSMEN READY TO COMPETE ON SUNDAY

With both Dr. Ego the honorary president and Dr. Day the honorary vice president participating in the shooting the Rifle Association held a most successful practice at the beginning of the week.

Better results than those reached last Sunday are expected when the intercollegiate competition takes place next Sunday, members of the executive declared yesterday. A number of the members are planning to meet at Strathcona Hall at 7:30 so as to get out to Pointe aux Trembles in good time. Others are expected to proceed directly to the ranges.

BAND PRACTICE HELD IN UNION YESTERDAY

"The band is improving and the boys are showing very good spirit this year," were the words of Eddie M. Cane, the Director of the McGill Band at the practice held in the ball-room of the Union at five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At last Saturday's game there were twenty-eight in the band. The Director believes that this is probably the largest band that McGill has ever had at a game. The Director expects, however, that the number will soon increase to about thirty-two.

COMMERCE FROSH ENTERTAIN SOPHS

Dr. Tait and Prof. Villard to be Present at Banquet

The Commerce freshmen will entertain the Sophomores at their annual banquet to-night at 7:30 at the Queen's Hotel. The freshmen will thus be afforded the opportunity of strengthening their friendship with the second year men. This comes as the final end of the period of hostility between the two classes.

The banquet will be of strictly informal nature and the freshmen are especially requested by the Sophomores to attend.

Dr. Tait and Prof. Villard it is expected will speak at the gathering to-night. The class presidents will also make short addresses. A special seven-piece orchestra headed by Ho. White has been engaged for the occasion.

Those Sophomores who contributed for the banquet last year may procure tickets from Darling, Commerce '25. President it was stated last night.

S.C.A. OF R.V.C. TO RECEIVE ON TUESDAY NEXT

Freshie Reception Will Have Varied Programme

CONVOCATION HALL

Speeches Relating to Activities of Various Societies

A varied programme has been arranged for the R. V. C. Annual Freshie Reception which is taking place at 6 o'clock on Tuesday, Oct. the twenty-seventh in the Convocation Hall.

This gathering is open to all members of the M. W. S. S., and a cordial welcome is extended to every year of all the departments and faculties in the Royal Victoria College. The purpose of this meeting is to bring together all the women students of McGill and particularly the freshmen, so that they may meet their own classmates as well as the students of other years.

Among other items on the programme will be brief speeches on all the societies of the R. V. C. by their respective presidents, which will it is stated prove most interesting to all, and particularly instructive to the freshmen, who though they are all members of these societies, yet may not be fully informed of their active work and purpose in the university.

In addition to this, a few entertaining numbers have been planned for the afternoon's programme. It has been rumored that a number of games has been arranged of an interesting and also useful nature in that they will enable the various participants to become better acquainted with one another in an entertaining manner.

It has further been learned that a number of students of dramatic ability intend to present before the audience something in the way of entertainment, the nature of which is rather obscure as yet.

It has been requested that all freshmen wear their green bows on this occasion, though without fear—merely in order that they may the more easily be distinguished in the large crowd expected.

Miss Hurlbutt, among other honorary presidents has expressed her intention of being present at this reception to welcome the students.

SCARLET KEY HAS BOARD'S APPROVAL

The following letter had been received by the Students' Council from the Athletic Board in connection with the Scarlet Key Society.

The Students' Council, McGill University, Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Athletic Board held on October 14th 1925, I was instructed to inform you that the Athletic Board was strongly in favour of having a Scarlet Key Society organized for the purpose of entertaining visiting teams, and other delegates to this University.

Yours very truly,
D. STUART FORBES
Athletic Manager

SCARLET KEY SOCIETY WILL BE BIG ISSUE AT STUDENTS' MEETING DECLARES MACLEAN

Will be Boon to Visiting Teams, says President—To Act as Information Bureau for Freshmen—Financial Statement Will be Issued at Meeting—States Deficit due Mainly to Renovation of Union—Believes Prospects for this Year Bright.

"The formation of a Scarlet Key will be the most important issue at the meeting of the Students' Society to-day," Basil C. MacLean, president of the Students' Council, declared last night when interviewed.

"The Council," the president continued "after studying the matter carefully, decided that at a little or no expense the Scarlet Key Society could perform a service here that would be of great assistance to athletes at McGill and to other student athletes in general and would add much to the prestige of the university. However, the Council, following its policy of keeping in touch with the seat most about the Campus in such matters, has decided to bring the matter before the student body for its approval or disapproval before commencing the organization."

The president then briefly stated the birth of the idea of establishing the Society, and the principal arguments to be advanced for its inauguration. The suggestion of the Scarlet Key Society came from the managers and players of the various McGill teams who visited other colleges for competitive purposes. They found that at practically every university they visited they were systematically taken care of, and the greatest of attention was given them. In short, they felt that an organization—such as the Scarlet Key Society—was very smoothly at most universities.

There has been a great lack of system on the part of the university in looking after visiting teams, the President explained. One of the main purposes of the Society then would be to provide for the comfortable reception of visiting teams.

Furthermore, the Scarlet Key Society is intended to serve as an information Bureau and as a guide to Freshmen. There has been criticism for some years to the effect that such service was lacking for the students entering McGill. Thus the Scarlet Key proposes to direct freshmen on such matters as obtaining lodgings, and to acquaint them with the scope of the university, giving any other information that they should desire.

Some have objected to the formation of the Scarlet Key Society on the ground that the idea is an American one, having originated in Dartmouth, MacLean declared. "This objection, however, cannot hold because the whole system of athletics is also similar to the American. Furthermore, a good idea is a good idea no matter where it originates this is not intended to cast any reflect on Dartmouth. A second objection is advanced namely, that McGill is already over-organized. The purpose of the Scarlet Key, however, is to do away with the present sloped, haphazard, inadequate, cumbersome, and time-wasting methods, and to replace them by convenient and systematic methods which would be a boon to visiting teams and to the student body.

Lastly, the Scarlet Key Society will not, as some believe, be a further expense to the students," MacLean said. He was of the opinion that the Society would be maintained efficiently at little or no expense whatever.

The Council has had several meetings to consider this Society, and is now convinced that its formation is greatly to be desired. It has drafted a constitution for the Scarlet Key which it will submit to the consideration of the students to-day at 11 o'clock.

The President turned then to the financial statement which would be issued at the meeting. The reason why the statement did not show a balance on the credit side, he said, was the loss of $4651 transferred to the Council by the McGill Union. The Union was in need of many repairs, much new equipment had to be bought. All this could not be delayed, and since there was no sinking fund, the Council was obliged to pay for the repairs, renewals, and the equipment which amounted to the amount specified.

The Cafeteria had a deficit $2600, $600 of which went into equipment and became capital, and $2000 of which was lost in operation. The revenue from the training table dropped from $1650 to $432 due to the decrease in the price of the training table meals from $1.10 to 55 cents. The Daily last year incurred a deficit of $133 as compared with the surplus of $1106 of the preceding year. This deficit accounted for by the following facts: advertising revenue dropped $300, and the Literary Supplement cost $475. As for the plans 1926 has already been paid on account, and thus the instrument can be regarded as an asset.

It must be remembered, the President stated, that of the $17 paid by each student on registration, the Council gets only $5. Of the $5, $3 goes to the Union and $1.50 goes in the Daily; so that the Council gets only $1.50 per student to carry on the rest of its activities, such as the Musical Association, the Canadian Club, the Directory, and the other important undertakings. Last year the revenue of the Council from this source dropped $600 due to the smaller registration.

"So with that dispropor on between the revenue and the necessary expense," Mr. MacLean explained, "the Council was obliged to take in hand the Red and White Revue. The Revue was a financial success, and brought in $1377."

Basil MacLean then discussed the prospects and the policy of this year. "The Council has decided that this will be a year of retrenchment. Extremely little is being spent on our largest project, the Union. The Union is now amply fitted and renovated and no considerable sum will have to be spent on it for some years at any rate." The Cafeteria has been on a cost accounting basis, and we expect that this will prevent any disproportion between revenue and expenditure in the Union.

The Cafeteria was operated at a loss because it fed the students under cost in spite of the fact that there was criticism of the high cost of food. The new system will, it is hoped, make the Cafeteria a success.

It is sometimes implied, that the Council tends to become autocratic. Yet it is only since last year that the meeting of the Council began to be fully reported in the "Daily". The Council furthermore submits all important questions for the consideration of the students of the University.

"The Council inaugurated services last year which never existed before such as the Directory and the Employment Service. It constructive criticism from the student body. In fact, it is far more pleased with intelligent criticism than with apathy. But it is annoying at times," he concluded, "to hear criticism from those who are ignorant of the real facts."

SOCCER TEAM READY FOR TRIP TO STATES

Good condition for their coming trip to the United States was shown by the soccer team at a practice held yesterday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. on the Campus.

The forwards received some special practice during the course of the work out. All the players are in excellent shape and are confident that they will repeat the success that they had last year.

The Springfield team whom they will meet on Saturday have a string of victories to their credit and recently defeated Dartmouth by a score of 4 to 3.

The following men will leave on Friday night under the charge of Coach Emory: Stephenson (captain), Archdale, Amaron, McLeod, Denny, Gaym, Shippam, Kelland, Moffatt, Helwig, Giocondo, Scott. The next practice will take place on Thursday night at 4:15 p.m. and it is essential the manager states that all the above men turn out for this last practice before the trip.

McGILL AND THE ELECTIONS

A little more than a week remains before the citizens of Canada go to the polls and as the important event approaches politicians are fast pushing the campaign to a fever heat. The issues involved are today more obscure than they were a month ago. Numerous political speeches, a vast number of editorials and newspaper reports (fed to the populace in fixed doses according to the demands of the various parties) and much discussion, have served to hide the fundamental points which should be significant in the elections which are about to take place.

How are the electors to pick out from this heap of rubbish those salient facts which will determine their attitudes and sympathies towards the different parties in the coming fight? Are they truly in a position to stirp off the host of sentimentalities and platitudes—the undignified and unintelligent resorts of the various candidates to secure votes—and realize what really lies back of all this? Can they be expected to do justice to that right which is theirs, of choosing those who are to govern them?

What is really needed in the coming elections is the attitude of the scientist—that attitude which sees the tiny atom, which sweeps aside the unnecessary and the illogical, and which utilizes only that which is positively essential in order that the truth be derived. This scientific outlook is taken by very few of the electors and, unfortunately, by very few of the student voters, who, after all, should represent the cream of the ballot-casters—those who are able to exercise their franchise with some intelligence.

It is greatly to be desired that this scientific attitude be adopted by McGill men. They cannot permit themselves to be swayed by party feeling or by the gross election tactics which pervade the outside world. They must take a student viewpoint, sift, cast aside the non-essential, dig down to the very bottom, and, regarding the facts in the light of reason, vote as these facts dictate.

A step is already being taken in the right direction. On Thursday evening of this week three of our prominent students, two members of the graduate school, and one undergraduate, are to place before the Economics Club—an organization at McGill which has ever been noted for its broad-minded and liberal discussion of problems that are in themselves of more than local significance—the outstanding issues involved in the coming political fight. Each man is to speak on behalf of one of the three outstanding parties in Canada, and will deal with the problems from purely a scientific standpoint such as has characterized all previous discussions at the Economic Club.

It is hoped that students will avail themselves of this opportunity, and that they will come with open minds to consider the manifold aspects of the present situation. If McGill men would forget that there are such things as party affiliations and after the manner of our students of economics gaze with impartial eyes until a thorough conception of Canada's problems is gained, then truly will they be the intelligent voters—such as are not often to be found. Surely if we are to discover them anywhere it will be within the walls of our university.

TO-DAY'S MEETING

The annual meeting of the Students' Society takes place this morning at 11 o'clock in the Union.

Those who have attended McGill before are fully aware of the significance of the gathering, but to those who are newcomers to the university the importance of being present cannot be adequately stressed. It must be remembered that every student who has paid his universal fee is a member of the Students' Society and as a member should use the vote that is his according to his convictions in regard to the various important issues which are to be presented today.

Lectures have as usual been cancelled from 11 o'clock to 1 o'clock and there is no reason why the ball room of the Union should not be packed to overflowing when Basil MacLean calls the meeting this morning to order at the scheduled time.

THE TRACK MEET

In the editorial column of last Saturday's Daily appeared the statement in connection with the track meet, "Toronto also accepted with a good grace several adverse decisions that they might have contested with some justice." The sentence is entirely misleading, as there were, of course, no adverse decisions. On four occasions the referee was called upon, and of these three were entirely covered by the rules. In the fourth, the high jump, the referee awarded a Toronto man second place, when the McGill man with whom he was tied, injured his leg and withdrew, coming third. The quotation implies that the referee, who has for many years officiated at track meets with unquestioned fairness and ability, was partial to McGill. This is an unjust, though quite unintentional, implication.

Montreal, October 19, 1925

The Editor,
McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:—In view of the nearness of the annual meeting of the Students' Society, I think someone should attempt to analyze the proposed Scarlet Key Society lest in the hysteria of the meeting the proposal be approved without due consideration. As I understand it the functions of the Society are to be three fold; viz., hosts to visiting teams, the supervision of all campus activities and thirdly it will reserve to itself the special duty of perpetuating the traditions of the university. I am quoting from the article in to-day's Daily which attempted to set forth the views of the McGill coaches.

In view of the balance sheet which likewise appeared to-day and which only an inveterate optimist would call good—there was an excess expenditure to the General account of $2,942.25—may I ask what is the approximate cost of the proposed Society? I do this because in one of your recent editorials it was stated that there is being instituted a campaign of economy. Is the cost of entertaining visiting athletic teams borne by the Students' Council or by the Athletic Governing Board? If there is to be any increased cost to the council I think that this year is not the one to make any changes; if by the Athletic Governing Board with the Council or the Board control the activities of the Society?

Not enough has been said about the other functions of the proposed Society; viz., that of supervision of all campus activities. I assume that the Scarlet Key will act as policeman on the campus and bouncers at functions like the dance at the Union "clubbuckers-out" at the Red and White Revue. We have managed to worry along now for over a hundred years without such relics of adolescence and prep schools as prefects without having the name of the University stink in the city. Why should we subject ourselves to them now?

I hope that the third function mentioned in to-day's Daily; i.e., that of perpetuating the traditions of the University slipped into your column through the ignorance of a reporter and the carelessness of a night editor. Such a function is, ipso facto, an impossibility. The idea of a museum for traditions is laughable to say the least. The traditions of the University like the British Constitution are not static and fixed but living and fluid. How, for instance, could the proposed Society reserve for itself the right to perpetuate that football victory in 1911?

And now, Mr. Editor, there is the question of the desirability of that function of the proposed Society's which has already received some attention. We have heard enthusiastic praise of Dartmouth hospitality as the reason for a Key Society here. It is a question if we have similar conditions here. In spite of repeated attempts to foster international sports with universities in the United States, McGill's chief rivals are and are likely to remain the University of Toronto and Queen's University. The reason for such a Society must be found in its usefulness in entertaining teams from Varsity and Queen's. Neither of these places, has any proposal similar to the Scarlet Key Society and I have heard little complaint of the social reception our teams receive in Toronto or Kingston. The personnel of teams in the Intercollegiate Union changes slowly. The names Batstone, Leadley, McKelvey, Syder, Pequignat, Hudson, Les Black, Philpott, Hughes and Manson have been familiar names for a number of years in intercollegiate circles. Do they need guides to find their way around any of the three cities? Does Coach Bill Hughes need a guide to show him around Montreal? I think and reasonable person can see the futility of this function of the Society in this connection. Mr. Van Wagner may well be conservative and guarder in any statements that he made about the society. Mr. Frank Lively, Captain of the Toronto Track Team expressed his appreciation to me and a number of others of the splendid reception his team had received in Montreal.

Whether the value of the Society in entertaining American visiting teams is questionable. As we all know

"Montreal is a very wicked city." We should shield them from the temptations of this modern Sodom and I suppose the Scarlet Key Society would be as beneficial as any method, although there is a certain pleasure in tampering with fire (water).

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I have shown that the Scarlet Key Society is a monstrosity, one-third honorary "hell hop," one-third "campus cop" and one-third tradition perpetuator. If we are going to have the beast it must be clothed decently. Can we afford it? Do we want it?

Yours faithfully,
H. R. L. DAVIS.

The Editor,
McGill Daily.

Dear Sir: I would like to state in regard to the proposed Scarlet Key Society that every member of the football or basketball team is heartily in favor of the idea being carried out at McGill. Last year we had the opportunity to see similar organizations handling the entertainment of visiting teams at a few American universities. As their guests they made us feel very welcome showing us different points of interest about their college and also looking after our personal comfort. On leaving we all were of the opinion that we had been entertained by a real college.

The paramount purpose of intercollegiate competition is to form good feeling between the different colleges. This could be accomplished to a greater extent if some special organization would look after their welfare while they are our guests. At present we are neglecting our visiting teams and certainly it should be remedied.

Yours sincerely,
N. W. PHILPOTT.

The Editor,
McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:—Last night as I lay on my bed thinking over the work I had not done and of the fair women of the R. V. C. I was disturbed by a knock. Without waiting for an answer an old man with a long flowing beard entered my room. There lifted his hand he spoke as follows, "So there is one who dwelleth in the land of McGill, one who lacketh wit and understanding, and he calleth himself Student. Now this Student, though I do much fear he is not a student of facts, has taken it upon himself to abuse the Society of the Scarlet Key in wretched doggerels. Now he saith that the men of McGill are to give up the old tradition of acting as good hosts. But I, even I the spirit of Brian Boru, say he is a nut. Deth Student, in his ignorance think that in time past the men of McGill went down to receive their guests in a multitude with cymbals and dancing, with torches and yodelling; and doth he think that the multitude stayed with the guests throughout their visit and gave them information of the things whereof they know not? Doth he think the "Home Team" will play the host a whit less because some man receives the visiting team. Shades of Nick Carter, this Student is ignorant. Doth he not know that in the land of Dartmouth the men of McGill were shown greater hospitality than they had ever before been shown; through the working of a Society similar to the Society of the Scarlet Key. He complaineth that the idea is one from the land to the South. But I say unto you, if a good idea should come from the pits of Hell it would still be a good idea. Still I know that the breadth of some minds is not great. I suppose if Jesus Christ had been born in New York there would be many Students who would disdain Christianity as an American institution. So, I shall make a prophecy, that if Student giveth up the writing of doggerels and leaveth the picking up of campus waste paper to the groundsman, he may some day be elected to the honorable society of the Scarlet Key." There was a clap of thunder and the speaker disappeared. Then I awoke and found that I had fallen out of bed.

RUGBY TEAMS PLAY TO-DAY WITH LOYOLA

Intermediate Championship is At Stake

JUNIORS STRONG

Captain Clarke Partially Recovered from his Wrenched Knee

The Intermediate championship will be virtually decided this afternoon when Loyola first meet McGill seconds. The Junior's game is all important too, because if they defeat Loyola they will be in the play off.

Coach Shaughnessy had the intermediates working until long after

TOMMY ARNOLD

Star half of Intermediate squad.

Dark last night and afterwards took them to the Union for final instructions. Several new plays were gone over on the blackboard. The intermediates look like a winning team this year, having defeated both Loyola and the U. of M. once. Loyola have two victories against U. of M. to their credit and so everything depends on today's play. Last year Loyola won the series and played off with Queen's here. The game was close, Queen's winning in the final period. This year the play-off will be in either Toronto or Kingston unless a home and home series is decided upon.

The Juniors have not been receiving as much attention as the intermediates but they are a scrappy squad and can be counted upon to put up a good fight today. They won their last game against U. of M. by default and last week lost to Loyola by the close score of 8-5. The odds were pretty well balanced and if McCan hold Cannon, Loyola's ten second man, they ought to win. The line is much heavier than Loyola's and in the last game McGill made yards more often than their opponents. Captain Clarke has been off with a twisted knee but will be out. Urquhart, Crombie and Dalton will probably start in the backfield and O'Mera in the line.

The Juniors will report at the Stadium at 1 p.m. and the Intermediates at 2 p.m. The following players will turn out:

Intermediates

Arnold, Wright, Tucker, Pugh, Bazin, Mollen, Dion, Wallace, Carson, Chisholm, Home, Taylor, Flynn, Grusick, Gortie, Parsons, Little, Alimus.

Juniors

MARITIME-WESTERN COMMITTEES TO MEET

With a view of framing a new constitution for their amalgamation com-

Practices are proceeding merrily at the stadium in preparation for Saturday's game in Kingston. The Red and White squad are not going to let the defeat on Saturday slow them up, and yesterday's practice brought forth the snappiest football yet and then some. Coach Shaughnessy had the gates barred and from now on those who want to see the team in action will have to buy tickets for the scheduled games. There were only three spectators at the practice yesterday and I blush to say that Gussie was one of them. The two others were a fat man alleged to be prominent around the campus and a newspaper man from down-town.

Although Saturday's game showed that Queen's have a red hot football aggregation, the McGill squad hope to turn the tables on them in Kingston. About the only way to beat the Tricolour is on fighting spirit and the squad are determined to show plenty of that in the next game. Queen's may win again but when they're finished they'll know that they have been through a battle. Saturday's victory was their twenty-second straight triumph and this can't go on much longer. As Isaac Newton remarked years ago, "There aint no such thing as perpetual motion."

After seeing Saturday's game I am more convinced than ever that I have struck upon a real hot idea to enliven football games. I suggest that after each game the umpire be thrown to the spectators, and the referee (the cause of it all) be thrown to the rooters. In this way, no matter which team won, everybody would go home happy. By all means let us have happy faces about us (Beautiful thought).

I continue in this issue my gallery of famous football players, presenting to-day, gentlemen, R. H. Spears, commonly known as the "Tunnel Town Brunner." The tunnel town is Not Model City but Sarnia although those who have come away from that famous place would have you believe that it is a model city. The initials "R. H." we are given to understand are an abbreviation for Robert Bruce. The McGill inside is trying to live up to his great namesake's reputation as a fighter and claims that his Bannockburn takes place on Saturday in Kingston. If this is true it's likely to be Queen's Waterloo. (Give dates when possible). Spears is a member of the class of second year Commerce a fact which is in itself significant.

BRUCE SPEARS

"The Bruiser," christened Bruce after a famous Scotch fighter and not without reason.

TENNIS TITLE OF R.V.C. HELD BY E. COCHRANE

Defeated Miss F. Stocking in Close Game

YESTERDAY A. M.

Good Tennis Witnessed by a Number of Spectators

Miss Edith Cochrane, Arts '27 is again tennis champion of the R. V. C. as the result of a match played yesterday with Miss Frances Stocking, Arts '26. The day was cold, but in spite of wind and drifting leaves, the two contestants gave a fine exhibition of skill to the delight of their fellow enthusiasts. Miss Stocking, who won the championship in her Freshman year and was runner-up as a Sophomore, did not display her usual good form at the outset, serving several doubles and frequently driving the ball into the net. As a result, Miss Cochrane was able to win a love set. In the second round, Miss Stocking recovered lost ground, making some spectacular smashes and back-court drives and finally winning the set with a score of 7-5. The final round was very closely contested. Both players seemed to be straining every effort to win. There were some exciting rallies and deuce games which kept the crowd on tip toe in which Miss Stocking continued her good work. Miss Cochrane, although perhaps not so strong a player, proved the advantages of speed and accuracy.

She has a clean-cut, lightning-like serve and an astounding lightness of foot. Miss Stocking has a gift for picking up the ball and dropping it a few inches on the other side of the net, while her opponent has learned the use of the back-spin. Steady playing, however, was the determining factor, and in the final set Miss Cochrane upheld her title with a score of 8-6. The results are 6-0, 6-7 8-6.

The committee also will decide upon whether ladies will be invited to join the club. Owing to the importance of the work to be done authorities of the two clubs urge each representative to be present.

McGILL GOLF CLUB PLAYS IN TORONTO

Will Attempt to Regain Ruttan Trophy

The McGill Intercollegiate Golf Team leaves for Toronto on Thursday night. The handsome Rutan Trophy is now in Toronto's possession and it is hoped that McGill will be able to return with the cup.

If the cup is won by McGill this year it will be a great feat as such well known players as Don Garrick, Canadian Amateur champion and Freddie Lyons are on the Toronto team.

The golf committee has experienced some difficulty in choosing a team, there being so little material from which to choose. The following will probably go to Toronto: W. A. Clark, T. B. Walsh, John Marler, W. B. Allen and two of the following Willie Wilkon, J. M. Brerley or Francis Gill.

The game with the graduates could not be arranged due to the fact that the graduates were unable to get up a team. However, hope is expressed by the captain that the men mentioned above will endeavour to spend this afternoon on the Royal Montreal Course.

CORRESPONDENCE

it meets may be covered by a number of other alternatives: e. g.

(a) An entertainment committee consisting of the Students' Council which is and should be the only official representative body of students.

(b) A committee ad hoc appointed by the Council in event of their incapacity to entertain, etc.

2. Such a Club is a monumental defiance of the fundamentals underlying the conception of host and guest. None are better qualified to entertain a visiting team than those who meet these visitors in contest.

3. The conception of such a club is undemocratic. It is undemocratic. A University can only recognize an aristocracy of intellect. An elite of schooled polished and priming hosts within a university today is clearly a retrogression of feudal fiefdom.

4. Such a club beyond a doubt is an adventure in officiousness.

5. It is likely to entail a certain amount of sectional bickering.

6. It is based on servile imitation of an American custom which is not peculiar to our academic growth.

Yours sincerely,

WATER POLO TEAMS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Juniors and Intermediate Battle C. P. R. Teams

Tonight the Rubenstein Bath will be the scene of pep and speed when the McGill Water Polo teams take the water against the C. P. R. The fixture is a double-header in the City League, with both the Intermediate and Junior teams appearing in it. Selection has been a different matter for Coach Verhol, for at the last practice the whole bunch arrived and there was scarcely an inch of space around the sides of the pool, even the gallery had its share. But the result will be seen at 8.30 p.m. to-night when Charholm speeds out and collar the ball for McGill. The Juniors are playing the first game and the members of this team, having had outside experience for a number of years, look like the pack to bring home the bacon.

The Intermediates are up against a tough proposition, a crack team which in all probability turn out some Old Boys of former McGill Seniors. The C. P. R. are very strong and have recently defeated a well-balanced M. S. C. team, but they will find a hard nut to crack when the continued training of the McGill sextet shows its form. The Intermediates are with two exceptions members of Intercollegiate Championship teams and this experience will tell. Parsons, the captain, is keeping out until Senior Rugby is through so that he can keep hard.

Manager Petzold gives a preliminary announcement that fixtures of swimming and water polo meets are to be arranged with Westmount High, Montreal High, and Loyola for the Juniors, and for the Intermediates there will be University of Montreal, Quebec and Britannia and Capitol Clubs of Ottawa. The following are the line ups for to-night,

HARRIERS TO RUN IN SIX MILE RACE

Will Compete in Vipond Cup
Event Saturday

The Harrier Club will open its active season next Saturday afternoon, when a McGill team will enter the Vipond Cup Race of the Montreal Harriers, a six mile run from P. E. X. Blvd. along the length of Sherbrooke Street to Atwater, which will be followed to Dorchester, and thence east again to Guy Street. There will be several teams of the various Montreal Clubs in the competition, and an exciting race seems likely.

The Harrier Club has had no organized races this year, by which the value of the various men can be judged, so the men running next Saturday will be those who have been training well enough to stand a six-mile race this early in the season. It is probably that the McGill competitors will be Goforth, Rubin, Airey, Brodie, Croighton, Gray-Donald, and perhaps one or two more.

The next race for the whole club will be the Interfaculty race, sometime towards the end of the month. The date has not as yet been definitely set, but it is generally a week previous to the Intercollegiate Meet, which will be in Montreal on Nov. 7. After the run, the only event still on the programme will be the Dunlop Road Race, in which the Red and White runners will probably place a team.

It was announced yesterday that the Athletic authorities had sanctioned the purchase of Red sweaters for the first Harrier team. This will be an aid in team competitions to the runners by identifying their own men.

The Track Club, although its last races were held last Friday and Saturday, is still holding practices every day, and Manager Hyde has made arrangements so that all who run at four o'clock may secure physical training attendance. The officials urged all men to continue their track work for some time, as practice is essential in developing the heat in a man. To win the championship back from Toronto is the aim of the club, and this can best be furthered by every man working out as late in the year as possible with the Harriers or on the track.

The movie rights for one of Mark Twain's least important stories recently sold for $25,000 for a six year agreement.

M.S.P.E. TRACK MEET HELD YESTERDAY

Break Records in Baseball and Javelin Throws

AT STADIUM

Remainder of Sports to Take place To-day

Records were broken at yesterday's track meet of the M. S. P. E. at the Stadium when the members of the school gathered for their annual day of athletic contests. The remainder of the sports are to be held today.

Helped by a wintry blast, a sure aid to swift movement, the girls made very good time in the sprints. In the first heat of 100 yard dash, Miss Drummond, (Junior) broke the tape in 13 and a fifth seconds, closely followed by Miss Montgomery, a senior, and Miss Ball, junior. In the second heat, Miss Burton of the second year, equalled the record of 12 and a half seconds, while Miss Westlake another of the second-year entries, and Miss Thompson from first year took second and third place.

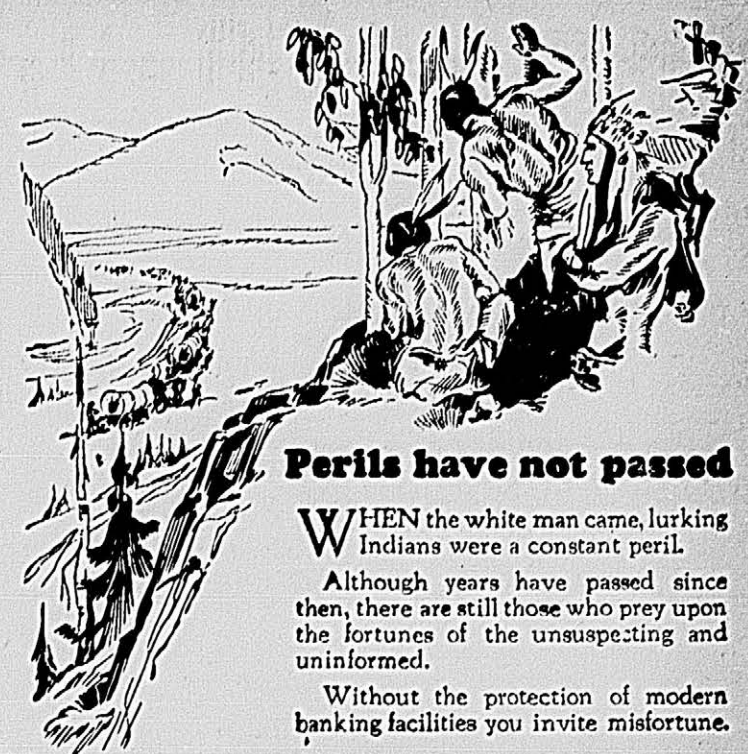

In the basketball throw as well as in the javelin throw the competitors elected to throw against the strong wind. Miss Ballard of the second year hurled the ball 132 feet, six and a half inches which constitutes a new record. Miss Coursier of first year came second with 116 feet to her credit and Miss Montgomery of the second year, third with 112 feet 11 and a half inches.

In the two heats of the 50 yard sprint a most peculiar draw was made. In both heats three girls from one year ran against one girl of the other year. In the first heat the three Seniors took all the places, Miss Ross first, her time being 8 and two-fifths seconds, with Miss Mackell and Miss Morris second and third. In the second heat Miss Ball came in first covering the distance in 7 seconds with Miss Nesbitt and Miss Crosby second and third.

In the first heat of the sixty yard hurdles, Miss Westlake, representing the Seniors, was the winner with 9 and four-fifths seconds, while Miss Montgomery, another Senior, and Miss Schneble, a Junior, were a close second and third. The second heat was even better than the first for Miss Burton, the fastest entry for the seniors equalled the record of 9 and two-fifths seconds. Miss Drummond and Miss Thompson, two members of the Junior team were second and third respectively.

In the first three throws of the javelin the places went to Miss Ballard, senior, Miss Duval and Miss Coursier juniors, and Miss Ramsey, senior. These four winners were then given three more throws and just by way of showing what she could do Miss Ballard broke her own record of seventy six feet, throwing the javelin 82 feet eleven and one half inches. This was conceded to be a wonderful throw because of the heavy wind blowing at the time. In her next three throws, Miss Coursier exceeded her previous attempt, winning second place, Miss Duval and Miss Ramsey came third and fourth.

The remainder of the sports and the finals of the heats already run off will be held this morning at 10:30 at the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium.
